INFORMATION FOR THE DIRECTOR'S LOG

A recent study of the comparison of civilian and military "on duty" strength within the Agency indicates that as of 31 July 1953 7.1 per cent of the Agency's personnel were military. Arbitrarily placing all officers and civilians (grade GS-7 and above) in the same group, 6 per cent of this group are military. Placing enlisted personnel and civilians (grade GS-6 and below) in the same group, 10.2 per cent of this group are military.
